

Educational support for Non-Chinese Speaking (NCS) Students

The school assesses the Chinese learning needs of all admitted Non-Chinese Speaking Students, and formulates appropriate learning goals and support plans, such as hiring an additional teacher to support non-Chinese speaking students in learning Chinese, provision of classroom and after-school learning support, Chinese learning groups and the development of school-based Chinese curriculum and adapted learning and teaching materials in Chinese, etc.

The school also organizes various activities to build an inclusive school culture and promote the respect of cultural diversity.

The school will make recommendations on the learning progress of Non-Chinese Speaking Students, so that NCS Students studying in senior forms can choose to take the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination Chinese Language or Applied Learning Chinese (for Non-Chinese speaking students) according to their learning progress, needs and interests. Counseling and support will be provided.
